Visioneer Recognizes Success of Executive Team with Promotions

Leadership team changes made to promote future company growth

PLEASANTON, Calif., August 16, 2013 – Visioneer, Inc., a leader in scanner and document management solutions, today announced that it has made several organizational changes on its executive and sales teams. John Capurso, former president and chief operating officer, will move to the role of chief executive officer to manage the company’s overall business and direction. John has been with the company since 2003. Jim Tamo has been promoted to senior vice president of global sales. Jim has been with the company since 2007 and will smoothly transition into his new role.

Additionally Erik Banis will now be managing director of EMEA (Europe, Middle East & Africa), overseeing Visioneer’s international channels and partners. Brian Williams has earned the position of distribution manager for North America which is the company’s largest channel of distribution.

“I am quite proud of these sales managers and the tremendous teams they lead,” said John Capurso, president and CEO at Visioneer. “These individuals are valuable contributors that continually deliver results, programs and partnerships to influence our company’s direction now and for the future. I can’t wait to see our plan unfold in the coming quarters, because I know it’s going to be good.”

About Visioneer

Visioneer provides a broad range of scanning solutions for the desktop, distributed and departmental document imaging markets as well as the mobile and remote business scanning segments. In 2003, Visioneer combined its leading scanner technology with the Xerox brand recognition to develop the Xerox® DocuMate® product line. Visioneer and Xerox DocuMate high-performance business scanners and imaging software solutions offer users speed, image quality, advanced paper handling and ease-of-use with exclusive Visioneer OneTouch® technology.
