Vioneer Announces Extension of Trademark Licensing Agreement with Xerox

PLEASANTON, Calif., July 31, 2012 - Vioneer, Inc., a leader in intelligent document imaging solutions, today announced a 5-year extension to their successful document scanner license agreement with Xerox Corporation (NYSE: XRX). Today's announcement extends Vioneer's current exclusive rights to develop, market and support the award-winning Xerox DocuMate[®] line of Xerox-branded document scanners.

"Our enduring partnership with Xerox speaks to the confidence that they have in Vioneer to continue creating innovative products that help people be more productive with their paper documents and the information they contain," said John Capurso, president and COO at Vioneer. "This has been a tremendously successful partnership. We will continue to combine our efforts with Xerox to deliver "best in class" scanning solutions that augment the Xerox product line whether in mobile, desktop, workgroup or production environments."

"Our goal has always been to keep the Xerox brand synonymous with innovation, quality, reliability and customer satisfaction," said Christopher AuClair, Xerox brand manager. "Throughout our relationship, Vioneer has continued to deliver high quality, forward thinking products that have consistently aligned with our objectives."

First licensed in 2003, the Xerox DocuMate scanner collection includes a range of document scanning solutions for small and home offices, corporate workgroups and production environments as well as mobile and wireless scanners for road warriors who are hardly ever in an office. Since entering into the licensing agreement with Xerox, Vioneer has created a highly successful product line that has earned awards from top industry media and analysts including Buyers Laboratory, PC Magazine, The New York Times and PC World Magazine.
